CAUSE NO. DOG-1-2014

TO: M. Dee Claude, c/o Andrew Leigh, 3151 7th Street, Boulder, CO 80304-2511 and via email at info@solmayarentals.com

Purpose Of This Notice

You are being provided with this notice because a petition has been submitted to our office on behalf of Moore Family Holdings, Inc., requesting that certain interests owned by the following be incorporated into their proposed Parkinson-Moore 1-H Unit:

- M. Dee Claude, c/o Andrew Leigh, 3151 7th Street, Boulder, CO 80304-2511

This unit is being established for the purpose of drilling for and producing crude oil from the Massive Tar Springs Sandstone Formation within the following described lands:

The West Half of the East Half of the Northwest Quarter of Section 24, Township 1 South, Range 12 West lying South of the White River; and the East Half of the West Half of the Northwest Quarter of Section 24, Township 1 South, Range 12 West lying South of the White River, all in Gibson County, Indiana.

Background Information

Indiana law requires the protection of what are known as "correlative rights." This means that a property owner's opportunity to receive the benefits of the oil, gas and other hydrocarbons located beneath their acreage cannot be unreasonably taken away. Any owner of oil and gas interests is entitled to share in the production of oil and gas produced from their property. This may result either from the drilling of a well by the owner or by conveying their oil and gas interests to another party who would then drill a well and allocate a proportionate share of the proceeds from the production to the owner. Most owners choose to lease their oil and gas interests to another party rather than assume the risk, expense, and liability associated with the drilling of their own well.

In order to prevent waste of oil or natural gas and the drilling of unnecessary wells, Indiana regulations also establish requirements for an operator proposing to drill a well for oil and gas purposes. According to 312 IAC 16-5-1 and 16-5-2, operators are required to form a drilling unit, also known as a spacing unit, of sufficient size, so as to effectively and economically drain all of the oil or gas resources there under, while minimizing the environmental impact.

Indiana Law, at IC 14-37-9, spells out the requirements for the voluntary and involuntary integrating of oil and gas interests among different owners within an established drilling unit. Integration occurs voluntarily when all property owners within a spacing unit execute an oil and gas lease containing a pooling clause in favor of a single developer or well operator. The law also allows for the integration of interests in instances where not all of the oil and gas interest owners have executed a lease, or as in this case, have not consented to the pooling of your interests to allow the operator to develop the oil resource in a manner which avoids waste and the drilling of unnecessary wells. This process is sometimes referred to as "forced pooling".

Accordingly, a well operator may submit a petition for involuntary integration to the Division of Oil and Gas whenever the integration of interests is necessary to prevent the stated statutory purposes of avoiding waste and preventing the drilling of unnecessary wells. Prior to submitting a petition, a well operator is required to obtain a substantial majority of the interests within the drilling unit and must also have made a diligent and reasonable attempt to obtain the consent of all owners of oil and gas interests within the drilling unit.

Petitioner has represented that your interests within this proposed unit are already the subject of a lease dated November 16, 1945, from Etta C. Parkinson, as Lessor, to Illinois Mid-Continent Company, as Lessee, and recorded in Book 60, at Page 321, of the Gibson County, Indiana records. Furthermore, Petitioner has represented through an Advalorem Statement identified as Exhibit C in their petition, that your interest under the aforementioned lease consists of an over-riding royalty interest (ORRI) amounting to a net percent interest of 0.00585900. Where owners voluntarily sign an oil and gas lease, the lease agreement establishes the specific terms and payments to be made from production. If an owner has chosen not to negotiate the terms of exploration and production, the compulsory integration process is intended to safeguard their correlative rights.

While most oil and gas leases contain a clause granting the operator the right to pool or unitize acreage, the above referenced 1945 lease did not include such a clause. Accordingly, Petitioner has sought to obtain consent to the pooling of interests from each of the owners of interest in that lease. Petitioner has indicated that all of the other interest owners within the proposed Parkinson-Moore 1-H Unit, except you, have consented to the pooling of their interests and that they have made a diligent and reasonable attempt to obtain your consent to the pooling of your oil and gas in the proposed Parkinson-Moore 1-H Unit.

A copy of the petition is included for your review. Copies may also be viewed from our website at <http://www.in.gov/dnr/dnroil/3790.htm>. A hyperlink to the petition can be viewed by selecting the (View Petition) hyperlink for this cause number (DOG-1-2014).

In considering the petition the Division of Oil and Gas must ensure that owners receive an equitable share of the crude oil and natural gas produced from the integrated drilling unit. For primary production wells, owners usually are assigned a percentage share based upon the ratio of the acreage you own and the total acreage in the unit. Petitioner is proposing that the participation factors for production on this lease be allocated equally among the two (2) leases (Lease A and Lease B as described in the Petition).

Your Options

It is important to understand that, at any time, should you decide to voluntarily sign a mutually acceptable pooling clause with the petitioners, there will be no need to proceed further with this process to integrate your interests.

Since your interests are located within a drilling unit to be duly established under Indiana regulations, and that integration terms have not been agreed upon through the execution of a pooling agreement, the likely outcome of forced pooling or integration procedure will be to integrate your 0.00585900 over-riding royalty interests (ORRI) in Lease B proportionately into the proposed Parkinson-Moore 1-H Pooled Unit. Your interest shall then share in the total production from the pooled unit in proportion to that which your interest bears to the entirety of the unit.

Notice of Informal Hearing – Cause No. DOG-1-2014
